The first game between Cambray and Cambray being one of those exciting events. Cameron came on the field with a Lindsay pitcher, while Cambray played their own little steady, who keeps a hand as cool as a cucumber. Two members of the club were umpires, but even at times they were slow that would be in dispute.

The game was close, the score being 13:11 in favor of Cambray. Ponds were standing in hot grease and even the Cameron catcher got an over-socked, she started palpitate and slapped one of the young fry, who was a spectator. Cameron had the strong support of a Toronto player for his help.

WOMEN WERE ALMOST DEAD Somebody with a perverted sense of humor attempted to get rid of four cows belonging to Percy Cleave, of Hamilton town, by putting a net in a field belonging to J. A. Noble, north of Hamilton, last week. On the net there had been an old barn, with sawing, floor and the four cows were driven into the barn and the door closed and a post stuck against it. Neighbors heard the cows bawling, and going to investigate found the four cows locked in the stable and almost famished for food and water. It is thought that they had been locked in the stable for a week at least, only having a little straw left to sustain on during that time. When they were discovered they were badly and were having lots of food and water.

Had a motor launch, Mrs. McSherry, aged 25 years, of 123 St. Mark street, Toronto, was drowned at Head Lake, near Ottilie, on Thursday, despite the heroic efforts made to save her by William ("Wavy") Young, aged 23, of W. W. Young Road, Toronto, a well-known amateur hockey and baseball player, who himself came within an ace of being killed.

No one saw Mrs. Sheehan enter the water. Not a good swimmer, she was riding with a young girl upon a raft driven by a motor launch to charge on Young, her companion on the raft, Mr. Young, her youngest son, 17, aged 12 years, who was in the motor boat, saw her slide into the water on the launch took a few minutes Young heard her cry for help and passing only to slant off the boat's edge, he plunged into the water and swam to her rescue. Her father had made the unfortunate woman frantic, and as soon as Young was within her reach, she clung to his hand and sank in a grasp that almost resulted in a double drowning. Young dove himself to her help when she became unconscious, and by then his own condition was precarious. He was exhausted and was pulled out of the water by some of the operators, who applied artificial respiration for almost two years before she regained consciousness. Mrs. Sheehan's body was recovered by dragging several hours later.

He made money on the farm

Of many a farmer retiring to a well-earned rest it has been said, "He made a lot of money on that farm." The fact is that he made no more money than his neighbour, but he saved a great deal more.

PROGRESS.

THE PROSPERITY of a community is not measured by population, but by its civic and commercial progress.

A handful of workers achieve more than a town full of drones.

Team work is what counts in everything. A prominent football coach recently said: "Give me a team of average ability who will work together, each with the other and all for the team and I will win over any team made up solely of individual stars."

Individual ability makes great men—shining lights, but it is mass co-operation of energetic men of civic spirit, home pride and community enterprise that builds a town's progress and prosperity.

Men of this community, be more than mere residents—be citizens.

The shirker says: "Let George do it." The worker says: "Let me help."

Is it not time that the business men of Lindsay exhibited more of the co-operative spirit. Team work will keep Lindsay a good town in which to live and transact business.

The majority of the rateres who spoke insisted that their main object was not to secure a reduction in the number of rateres in the schools, but to increase the efficiency of the staff.

FACTS ABOUT OPTOMETRY

No reading glass can improve sight if you don't take care of your eyes. It is called upon to work all day under trying conditions which give the most possible rest by keeping them from strain and eye correction glasses are essential to good vision where there is an eye of sight. Remember that as in the law "ignorance of the law" excuses breaking it, so neglect of errors of vision will bring the work born to you right in years to come.

Don't get lost. Have your eyes examined now.

As they play the mother tells the child in mentioning the coldest things they can think of, and from the very excitement they become cool.

The Lindsay Daily Post

THE LINDSAY DAILY POST is published every afternoon, (Sundays and holidays excepted) at Lindsay, Ontario, Canada.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 1925 THE CANADIAN FLAG

With the Huntsville Forester there is reason to say, it says, "Some of the citizens, who fear, are becoming a little hysterical over the proposal to give greater emphasis to a Canadian emblem on our National flag."

BLAME THE PARENTS

The Meaford Mirror in a word on behalf of the public school teachers "The usual cry of the parents is, "It is appearing in the newspapers regarding the Entrance examinations, some are reflecting on the teachers, others on the candidates, while a few place the blame on the pupils themselves, if they have failed to pass. However, it is a absence of real knowledge of the circumstances, we think it is quite unsafe to place any blame either on teachers or pupils, regarding the standing of the pupils, or their failure to attain the mark of success which is fully imparted to them. Blame might very well, in many instances, be placed on the parents themselves for not exercising supervision over their children when not under the jurisdiction of the teacher."

YOUNG MAN, GO TO WORK

Go to work! Knowledge does not come from a mere book. From the principles of working out these theoretical truths in actual practice. This world is overpopulated with people who would like to work if they used time intelligently. The hard work killing time that they justify. The efforts of such people are reminiscent of the old horse once used in brickyards to mill the clay. Round and round the circle he went, getting nowhere. A merry-go-round of idleness, a merry-go-round for children, but when adults do a little traveling, they feel that they have some work to do.

Do not wait for someone to turn up jobs full of goods to be peddled—the ability to make. Make things happen, the pretty, get something and keep it. It is in all the life of the initiator of new outlets for the budding spirit of man is a benefactor. Everywhere today the call is for the man who can make himself busy in new ways to reach odd ends. The burden of civilization is who means well, but means well feebly.

TRUTH ABOUT LIGHTNING RODS

The lightning rod agent who has long been the bane of the jocosities and often relied among the unnecessary accessories, he is now a loss of the way through the community, when one studies the annual report of Ontario's fire marshal. In 1922 there were 583 lightning fires in the Province, a loss of $1,000,000. Of these only six, with a loss of $36, occurred on buildings which had been "rodged." The financial Post takes all power to the long-abused lightning rod agent and to the manufacturers of the equipment, be it the selling to the public, on the basis of these figures, the manufacturers. Among those whose products are not little known but are little understood by the public. They could do some educational advertising to very good effect.

Truck Ran Into Parlor

The heart of the business district on the threshold of the dining room of a hotel, Mrs. Julia Poole reports that, Mrs. Poole was somewhat taken aback by a loss of the way through the many years that she had been a resident of this city. The driver was arrested.

It is time that people were made to understand that the lightning rod is a protector of life and property—not a joke. And that the lightning-rod agent should be squelched.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL

An editorial in the Toronto Star recalls that the Trent canal was originally planned as a naval work for the protection of Canada. (Pentagon was built to be a great naval port," the Star continues. "The investigation now being carried on with regard to the American frigates sunk in Kingston Bay last week recalls the intended destiny it also recalls a report which was made by William Blake of Wellington in 1811—a report on the defenses of Canada against the country to the South of it."

"Wellington had inspected maps. But he managed to figure out a whole system of inland waterways, through which troops were to be hurried from one point to another, with the assistance of railways, if necessary, where the waterways did not meet. He suggested that the River Rideau and its connecting waterways be kept open and the Kingston and Trent and its connections be canalized like Lake Simcoe and the Georgian Bay. And," he wrote, "if the communication with Lake Simcoe were once established, whether from the Rideau or direct from the head of the Rideau, I would recommend you to remove the capital of the province from York (Toronto) to Kingston, if that town should not be too far from centre of the province; or if it is I would then fix the capital of the province elsewhere up to the Trent river or between head of the Trent and the head of the Holland's river."

From Our Exchanges

THE DONKER (Vancouver Globe)

The City of Detroit will permit motorists who wish their auto horns sounded at a distance, assurance to the man who announces his arrival at a house in this way. In the case of ordinary use and finding the door shut.

THE WINNEPEG GANG (Vancouver Star)

The Winnipeg wharf gang are out to do anything and everything possible to bring the highest possible price. Vancouver public bodies should have no illusion about this. Two wharves which will never rippe the western grain trade are the absence in Vancouver of a "cash market." That permit system in the electric lines that had been even denied to irritate the western provinces.

THE GREAT ISSUE (Toronto Telegram)

Protection must be the great issue in the next election. That is the local issue in Toronto. It is the local issue all over Ontario and in the most remote parts of Canada. Verdict of the electorate on this issue will decide whether Canadian Airlines are to continue to exist, whether the search for employment because local factories are closed or they are to be given an opportunity to find employment in building up their own country.

HEART TROUBS

THE SUMMER COTTAGE (By Edgar A. Guest)

Oh, little fish which comes to us in the evenings of it. How many more times my plate I see you with a grin. Your silver side is gleaming fast, bedecked with beads of dew. 'Tis sad, but true, to look on you. They called me your mother.

Slipped upon some lily there, but long ago I sat. I'll plead my own time to shape a poem.

The night might marvel at. But into you there came the frost. "Oh, dinner," said she, "I'll be there."

"I'll dinner," said she, "I'll be there."

Three times a week by Norway Inn. Yours may plate I've come to see. From yonder sea you came to me. You're in a goodly mood, I say. A healthy spot your share. The more I eat your city share.

They knew on serving me. I knew, on thy, trail ardent. This you would rather be. At home with, to please and die. Thus make a meal for me. In life, to know you cannot keep. I'd rather see you wretched free. Thus have you my plate.

Woman Is Arrested For Taking Three-Year-Old Boy Kidnaper.

St. Thomas, August 7.—Charged with abduction of her own child, a three-year-old girl, Mrs. Bevelie Dyer, formerly Miss Macdonald, of London, Ont., was removed from her home of this city, before Judge MacIntyre, in Police Court today, and was released on bail of $1,000, to appear for trial on Saturday morning.

The case is a most unusual one and has excited considerable interest. Mrs. Dyer, who is a more than 40-year-old woman, has her husband, and shortly after the birth of the child, and when she was taken to the local Children's hospital, she was removed from her home of this city, before Judge MacIntyre, in Police Court today, and was released on bail of $1,000, to appear for trial on Saturday morning.

The flavor that children love. What a tribute to the flavor of Kellogg's Corn Flakes—so sweet, crisp and golden-toasted. No other food in all the world can have the joyous flavor of Kellogg's.

Serve Kellogg's with milk or cream. All ready to enjoy. No cooking. Also delicious with fresh or preserved fruit. Get your grocery—all grocers sell Kellogg's. All restaurants and hotels serve them.

Make this comparison! Compare the flavor of Kellogg's Corn Flakes with any ready-to-eat cereal and you will determine why Kellogg's outsells all others.

CHICAGO TO GUARD FAIR NAME

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Mayor William W. Weaver has appointed the citizens of Chicago to help correct the widespread impression that this city is wicked and wicked. He recently published figures on the number of marriages in Chicago as exaggerated twice over the Mayor's estimate. It is proposed to hold monthly meetings in a downtown theatre, at which the public will be informed of the true state of affairs. It is understood that the historical propaganda which has been related in some instances by "Burrhead Street" committee defectors.

An editorial in a leading Chicago daily, "The Chicago Tribune," has called Chicago in the world's "hardest hit" and "most unfortunate" city. The editorial, concluding some a public note which "fractured with indignity" meant "a" towards "indignity. Pleasantly" and "public sentiment were raised behind the editorials, it would be most serious of judges, Mayor or governor who tried to avoid exposure for indictments it would not, neither lawmakers would be held back afterwards, it would be the indifference or partiality based on the one side of the coin.

The Chicago Tribune, in a very recent issue, says in part: "The city is in a very serious financial condition, but it is not as bad as it is reported to be."

Judge Scott Criticizes the Street Walkers

The follower from Judge J. H. Scott, of Perth, father of Mr. J. H. Scott, of Lindsay, should be seriously considered by parents and the community. When we see, as we do every where, groups of youngsters, between the street house after school, examine the women about their dress, and contrasting remarks are only too freely made, we are only too glad to see that the women in these days do not go to the street in the way of the street walker. The prevalence of the white skirt, the lavender blouse, and the white stockings, are a credit to the part of the children but we do not mean to all the street walker who is to be seen in the street and of striking of the street.

The children, as well, have been seen in the street, at the Dundas School, if they are allowed, can wear a light-colored dress, as the mother has no control of the children within their fold, and in assisting their parents in making a proper suit to life for them. What is the real reason for this? It is the fact that the parents are largely responsible for the failure of many children of the present generation to acquire the historical training in life to which they are entitled.

Most important of all, a person having a defect of vision, or having the slightest tendency to suppose that his eyes are not of normal standard from glasses, should visit the optometrist at the earliest possible moment and have the eyes properly examined. Small errors of sight, especially those which result in large errors and very often it is these too late. Don't put it off, see now about your eyes and be sure.

(From the "Bible" Laughed.)

Charles Blackman (Lynchburg) has found the perfect creature and has been able to make a profit by exhibiting the possibility of the female sex. We have it to the reader's decision as to whether he has drawn too freely or not from the imagination, assuming caring to view the same. You may take a train to a town called "Pain" visit the Observatory, going to the very top. Leave off the side of a pipe in the centre and pull on the wire. You have a number of papers on the end of it, at the very bottom of the pipe in the foreground of the Observatory.

From his bottom to the top of the pyramid, Alpha's eye foundly followed the male sex of the "Bible."

"You're a peach!" he murmured. "Ah, the mastery of the steady state" he murmured. "Why, the very ideal. Making a job of her. When her picture was thousands of cigarette boxes. She smote him. She smote him twice. Three times she smote him. "Take that, and that!" he cried. And she smote across the desert. (The end!)

BANDITS GOT $1,500 AT TORONTO THIS MORNING WERE THEN CAPTURED

(Canadian Press Dispatch) Toronto, Ont., Aug. 10.—Quick and daring action on the part of Crown Attorney Constable Blashford about noon today resulted in the capture of the bandits who had just held up the staff of the Imperial Bank at Kingston road and Balsam ave., and got out with $1,500.

Constable Blashford followed the bandits out of the bank and fired at the fleeing motor and the men took to their heels down a line. Policeman Blashford rushed to the spot and placed the men under arrest. One of the prisoners gave the name of Percy White.

Another man gave name of Joseph Ross, taxi-driver. Manager of bank, also armed, accompanied Grainger to the bank and between them they fired five shots at the departing car. Hold up men climbed out and attempted to escape on foot but escape was cut off.

Joseph Ross was able to satisfy the police that he was an innocent party to the hold up and was released shortly this afternoon. White is being held for trial. White's occupation, the police, admitted he had engaged Ross to drive him to the bank, merely to catch a check.

According to the police, White appeared at the vicar and had a conversation with the vicar, who read, "put your hands up or I will shoot at once." Another slip passed in demanded money.

The tailor showed a bundle of bills out and White grabbed them and ran.

CANADA INTERESTED IN THREATENED STRIKE IN ANTHRACITE FIELDS

$3,000,000 From May Have To Be Relinquished by Substitutes.

Atlantic City, Aug. 11.—Threats of an anthracite coal strike Sept. 11 had reflection in a handling of prices in the anthracite fields by substitution of the demand that will be made for anthracite coal in Canada, and advice by administration by producers by their "straw" that the higher prices as increase in value of the anthracite fields in the event of a long draw out anthracite strike with the public demand for Government intervention might be an open question.

The response to an anthracite strike will be 300 per cent. only those men required to maintain the safety of the mines remaining at work. There would be no such response to a general labor order in the coal fields.

Women will never be paid as much as men because they do not work it for nothing.

The 1000-mile practical highway along the St. Lawrence or Ottawa valley route... was said regarding the other of these two all-Canadian routes... a deliberate decision is necessary. As to road conditions the Canadian more numerous favorable with the American route, while generally the Canadian route far surpasses the American route. On the U. S. side of the St. Lawrence river the road enters inland, while the practical highway skirts the shore... Stangars and visitors in town are cordially invited to all these services.

Would Encourage Safer Driving Through Contests

A campaign to encourage safer motor driving by means of contests, competition and tests may be among the non-ferre activities of the American Automobile Association. According to officials of the organization, lack of proper understanding of cars and their operation is a fundamental reason for the liability of the Nation to make greater progress with its motor problem. The fight against negligence, says President Thomas P. Sears, "is nothing more nor less than a fight against ignorance. Smartly equipped automobiles today would be of little benefit to the driver who lacked the means and skill to operate them with safety on the open track." Mr. Sears states that several American clubs hold annual service exhibitions and that these have met with approval for the reason that they have been largely held by improved conditions. These might well be conducted in the future.

String Soaps

No soap that is safe for toilet use will "remove" germs any better than Palmolive

If guarding a good complexion is your aim, use a soap made to protect it

THIS is to protect beauty seekers from some false impressions. Good complexions are too precious for experiments.

There's an idea, we are told, that some soaps combat germs; and others not. That for aesthetic reasons certain soaps must be used.

Soaps to "destroy" germs should be used only on advice of a physician. All soaps "remove" germs to a certain degree. No soap suitable for toilet use will "remove" germs any better than Palmolive.

In your own interest, carry that in mind. For beauty's sake, take care! Would you gamble with the good complexion it has taken you probably years to attain?

In old days, women were told, "use no soap on your faces." For soaps were too harsh. Then Palmolive came... a soap made to protect the skin.

Women tried it, and found amazingly improved complexions and charm. Palmolive became quickly the leading toilet soap of the world. In France, home of cosmetics, Palmolive is one of the two largest selling soaps. French women have found it their "ideal" of a soap.

That is because Palmolive is a unique creation, based on 60 years of soap study. It is made solely for the skin.

Palmolive is not intended for laundry use or even for face fabrics. For to be good for those things, its cosmetic qualities would need much reduced. And millions of good complexions be thus endangered. As a "germ remover" no other soap suitable for toilet use is more effective.

Palmolive results don't come from those other soaps. They don't come from strong soaps. They don't come from medicated soaps. Don't expect them. And don't take chances. To protect your beauty, use a soap made to protect it.

Palmolive, we frankly grant, is not the only fine complexion soap. We know of two others. But they cost you 25 cents, while Palmolive costs but 10 cents—no more than ordinary soaps. Enormous production brings you this modest cost.

Wash, launder, cleanse with any soap you wish. But when beauty is at stake, take care. Use Palmolive, a soap you know is safe to use. It's nature's formula to "Keep That Certain Complexion."

No "Two-Purpose" Soap Will Bring Palmolive Complexion Results... Palmolive Soap is made for ONE purpose ONLY—to guard your complexion and skin.

Don't expect Palmolive results from common soaps. Don't expect them from "just-of-all-kind" soaps. They are made to be good for scores of different uses.

SYNOPSIS

Bob Wilson, young college graduate, who suddenly turned tramp, has been noticed by Jim Dingley, who remains in Crater City and manages a job with the railroads. "There's a much mystery about him and he's got his head up where he should be," says the town's headline below. "A voice of universal praise and appreciation. Going to the lunch counter in the station one morning, he is surprised to find many of the night workers, remaining for breakfast and drinks a general air of expectancy."

CHAPTER V. (Continued)

Lost in his own reflections and ruminating he neither noticed that the voice was new and unfamiliar nor looked up when he said:
"Good morning, Miss. Ham and eggs, turned up in haste and coffee and being me grandpa's first glass."

The maitress of Crater City had long since accepted Bob on the strength of his knowledge and befriending the children and doing for his character. But regardless for his breakfast and selection to the only parts of the morning show open.

But nobody else in Crater City had thought of trading over habits—the waitress, and in characteristic only breaded by the lunch-counter boy of a greater hunger for more. "That's the same waiter—that fellow," was the romance secretary, across of the town's latest news.

He was actually on the second floor before it came to him that the "waitress" had a most peculiar way of introducing her coffee.

"When the devil say, where did these leather slips come from, you're getting a number by the 1-1-1—beg your pardon."

He had been vaguely recognizing the waitress without really seeing her, had taken her attention and arranged, and though his eyes were upon her yet they were vacant with the lingering mental tortures of lines upon lines of printed words. He was conscious of an unaccountable error in the order, not of an uncommon personality involved. The period of attention he was misled from reading to seeing was not rapid, he had been talking and staring with a frown full into the girl's face for perhaps ten seconds before the phenomenon that was the cause of Crater City's latest epidemic struck him. Then the face seemed to rush into dazzling brilliancy and clearness before his rapidly focusing eyes. The asked, "surface of his brain was burned by the glowing light of eye beauty, uninterpreted and unadorned by the too feeble and inadequate lines of his eyes. It was suddenly blind of all else but a lustreous picture of matched ivory and gold—and a mild crystallization of the excitement mingling the classic refinement, the delicate coloring of a rare cameo.

"I'm sorry—no sorry—Miss, I thought you were Missie, the usual waitress here."

But the sting of his original opinion had made the first and deepest impression upon the girl, who was dazzled and on edge from the experience of a trying morning at the lunch counter. Her cheeks were stained by a nervous flush.

"Oh, I remember who you want—I am a stupid of me." She nearly reached for the waitress, to take her by the hand.

"Over the girl's confusion Bob shrugged his own return to self-consciousness."

"I'm glad you brought the coffee—I am a stupid of me." She nearly reached for the waitress, to take her by the hand.

table adjacent to Bob's place, and said in a hoarse tone, "Very well, I'll bring your coffee now."

Brandy wobbled up and nodded to Bob with the unobtrusive deference of a waiter's bow to a good and orderly customer.

"What's Missie's name?" asked Bob, really on his choice to see her, but feeling that it would be best to be certain.

"What's her name?" asked Bob innocently.

"Caroline—Caroline Dale. Say, what's your idea you're an waiter for Brantley?" It was none of Brantley's particular habit that he knew the epidemic habits of his "regulars."

... demands that are made of us are rarely fully realized... MARY BRIAN IN TITLE ROLE OF "LITTLE FRENCH GIRL"

Beware, Madam

Don't Experiment with Your Good Complexion

Remember, no soap that is safe for toilet use will "remove" germs better than Palmolive

THERE'S a false idea going the rounds which, in the interest of fine complexions, we must combat...

That is wrong. Don't believe it if it is told to you. Good complexions are too precious for experiment.

Soaps to "destroy germs" should be used only on the advice of a physician. And for beauty's sake, remember this important fact:

The true difference in soaps is in their effect on your skin. All soaps "remove germs" to a certain degree.

In old days, you were told, "use no soaps on your face." For all soaps were too harsh. Then Palmolive came. A soap made of cosmetic oils. A soap made to be used lavishly on the skin.

Women tried it and were amazed. Palmolive became the leading toilet soap in the world. In France itself, home of cosmetics, Palmolive is supplanting French soaps.

Palmolive is not the only fine toilet soap. We know of two others that compare favorably. But they cost you 25 cents, while Palmolive costs but 10 cents...

Wash, launder, cleanse with any soap you wish. But when beauty is at stake, take care. Use Palmolive, a soap you know is safe to use. It is nature's formula to "Keep That Schoolgirl Complexion."

Soap from Trees... The only oils in Palmolive Soap are the soothing beauty oils from the olive tree, the African palm and the coconut palm...

That is why Palmolive Soap is the natural color that is—for palm and olive oils, except they give Palmolive its green color!

The only secret to Palmolive is its exceptional blend—and that is one of the world's precious beauty secrets.

Note carefully the name and wrapper. Palmolive is never sold unwrapped.

FALL HATS 56 Kent St. LEO. E. ROGERS Phone 512

No two men look alike. Is it then reasonable to suppose that the same style hat will be equally becoming to all men? We are inclined to think not.

There's a greater variety of shapes, widths of brims, heights of crowns and collars, the greater will be the satisfaction.

See our window for the greatest showing we have ever had of the new fall styles.

Present author of "Where the Sun Shines" and "The Young Man Who Played Violin in the Barrio Chino" has the only young "Palmolive" who "finds" the role of her people, and who whose family she is visiting is strong and beautiful.

 INDEPENDENT PRESS.

In giving up orphanage, it is explained that many papers did not discarded their right to express views on substantial importance, and this is as it should be, say the Thomas Thors.
 "I was, and was asked to keep 'hands off' in a newspaper, declared that his paper would be independent, but he would not be asked to establish a right, and denouncing what is wrong. And the party press to the contrary notwithstanding, the independent papers of Ontario, on this issue, we believe, put their money and doing much in Ontario, are what they most desire—a newspaper.

WHY BARNS BURN NOW.

Spontaneous combustion is talked of these days. Barn fires killed with hay and grain, and the cause is attributed to spontaneous combustion. A writer in a paper and gives a very plain and understandable account of the cause of fires. Water is made up of hydrogen and oxygen gas. When the hay heats, as all wet hay will, the water is changed into gaseous form, making oxygen and hydrogen gas, which is very combustible and lighter than air, and will collect in the top of the barn, forming a regular pocket of hydrogen gas.

The heat pouring up from the hay and the intense heat of the summer sun beating down on the roof of the barn produces an intensification of temperature of which every far-away farmer who has stored the least loads of hay just under the roof. This great heat is sooner or later bound to manifest itself, with the result that the hydrogen gas becomes ignited and in a flash the barn is adame in all parts.

Now for the remedy. It does seem terrible to have one's summer work all consumed in a minute. If there is any fire, however. The only way is either to have your hay properly cured, which is best, or have an open window in the top of the barn for a draught so it will not allow the hydrogen gas to collect.

AUTOMOBILES AND ROADS.

The amazing growth of the automobile industry is very strikingly evidenced by the announcement that enough money will be raised by the gasoline tax in the United States this year to pay for 5,500 miles of concrete highway, says its exchange.

The figures are so astonishing, as to be almost unbelievable and yet they are official and therefore true.
 One of the things they prove clearly is the tremendous blessing, direct and indirect, that the automobile has proved to mankind. Not only has it given employment to hundreds of thousands of people; not only has it developed the National Highway system and been responsible for the good roads that everywhere now exist, but it has been the means of bringing the city and the country closer together, and it has brightened the lives of millions of people by enabling them to get away from the stifling heat of the cities into the countryside, and by the cool, refreshing recreation and sters.

Some years ago we were told that the "saturation point" had been reached by this industry and that too many automobiles were being built, and that those who made this statement little counted upon the ever-increasing demand for cars.
 Thus we have seen production steadily increasing and the one time alleged "saturation point" long since past—and the industry still expanding. In these days prophesy as to what may or may not be the limit of the industry is vain indeed.

CALL OF TO-DAY TO YOUNG MEN.

Henry Ford, writing in the Dearborn Independent, says a young man planning to do his best business must "know his trade." The surest measure of protection against failure, for, according to Mr. Ford, "business never fails; only men do it."

Learning any business thoroughly is one thing our young men are not doing to-day, says the London Educationist. In a measure our idea of education sters them away from it. We have come to look upon matriculation standing high in the current measure of protection against failure, a young man can be arrested in business or commercial life if he is eighteen or nineteen years old before he gets that, and he has not started to learn a business or a trade.
 In too many cases when he has attained that standing he imagines he is qualified to demand good wages, wages that his knowledge of the work is not doing to warrant.

A young man entered a manufacturing concern and was put on record, one of the most important departments in any institution. When he had been doing that for a few months the boss of the firm, who is very practical himself, found the young man had an aptitude for the work and suggested that he should spend a year out in the shop in order to become familiar with certain processes of manufacture.
 The next day the employer received a call from the young man, and was notified that he had no desire to learn a trade and was therefore leaving.

That had was an ill-fated man, but to his own future. He refused to set that by getting first-hand knowledge of how the things the firm made were turned out he was becoming the master of the work he was going to do. The obstacle couldn't overcome was the idea of working clothes and rolled hands, and the tragic part was that his father agreed with him in his decision.

Henry Ford is right. The call is to-day for young men to "know" the business they decide to follow, and the way to know it is to work at it from the bottom up, and the sooner they get started on it after securing a fair usual training the better it is for them.

DIET FOR DIETS' SAKE.
 (Edith Wharton in Saturday Post.)
 All the revelations of modern which lampared the English society of the nineteenth century have now-shown with a crash, and the down-fall of the aristocracy is someone has wholy named) has reached to the opposite extreme of the diet, such, however, which is a world of art has ever spent

THE MOST DANGEROUS EXERCISE.
 (From K. G. G. in Union.)
 The violent exercise most harmful not, actually is done with a lawn mow.

SUMMER CASUALTIES.
 (Withed Tribune and Telegraph.)
 Last year in Ontario there were 35 killed by motor cars and 15 by trams, and even the horse and buldoze caused their toll of 46 killed by horses and 10 by bicycles.
 Many more the water to get out and here again the little angel stands by to take his quos. Three hundred and seven people drowned in Ontario in 1924; between 60 and 70 per cent. of the drowning occurred in June, July, and August.
 A good percentage of the victims would swim, but even an expert swimmer may get into difficulties who suddenly throws into the water from a boat or canoe, which later is likely the most deadly of them all.

HEART THROBS

THE LAUGHTER OF A CHILD
 To Father & Grand

The laughter of a little child
 'Was 'tiding waterfalls
 or stream,
 Or little silver bells cast down,
 Or musical notes rather than
 On Lady Evelyn's silken gown,
 Or even angels' music and song Singing their quos by means of brass,
 Can cheer us so so many ways?

In childish laughter there is more delight and rapture for mankind Than all things else the world can find.
 'Tis essential for the truce-blind soul in the troubled, peace-less life,
 The wave, which ripples, like hope,
 Have us new hearts and hearts true to life.
 Are there a small child's happy feet?

In childish laughter, one can hear
 The strains of music sweeter far
 Than the strains of any human A chord yielding the power of man.
 To touch which the pipes of Pan
 A sound so musical and clear That countless tones of joy will start.

So softly does it touch the heart,
 Oh those who've watched by night
 and prayed,
 Beside a baby's bed of pain,
 Waiting to see her smile again,
 Watching for signs that fever's fled,
 Had run their course and would subside,
 Will tell you there's no music more.

By which a laughter is recalled,
 So sweet as laughter of a child.

FLASHLIGHTS

A great man's hardest task it to keep on being great.
 Life has just so much in it, and soon but the foolish try to get a bit more out of it.
 The severity of criticism is due to the fact that women seem to prefer books and lectures.
 When a shopper asks, to see something more expensive, it is a sure sign she does not intend to buy.

Her heck says: "Castors on bedsteads and nappies' bottoms has come out."

Killed By Bolt

Chatham, Aug. 25.—Mrs. Oscar Chabot, wife of a settler in Lac rosse township, was almost instantly killed when lightning struck the house. She was making a bed on the time and her two six-children playing in another room heard a crash followed by a fall. Hearing from the apartment they found Mrs. Chabot on a floor, unable to speak. She died before they could return with a neighbor.

PERMANENT OFFICIALS.

Returning officers for Federal elections are to become permanent officials, under a recent amendment to the Dominion Elections Act.

NOMINATION DAY ABANDONED.

The new Election Act has some interesting features. One noticeable thing is the abolishment of the nomination day as soon as the writ is issued.

THE CONSUMER THE GOAT.

A coal strike in the Dominion district, affecting several hundred men, has been settled by the miners voting to go back to work.

IMMIGRATION OF INDUSTRIES.

A great deal of noise is heard from ethnically bowlers these days about the migration of Canada from the United States.

ELECTION OUTLOOK IN THE WEST.

The approach of a general election has been watched from a long way off without perturbing the serenity of the people of this country.

THE OLD INSANE PARTISANSHIP NO LONGER EXISTS.

The fanciful conception of elections which went with that parasitic class has faded. No longer do people believe that the election is a matter of mere numbers.

THE WEST KNOWS THIS AS WELL AS ANY OTHER PART OF THE COUNTRY.

It is language that should be now be comprehensible to the East. It has been proved that it has been clear. It has indicated in repetition it has been consistent.

HEART THROBS

Some of us are like Dr. Feltius. We're lazier than the rest. No one cares what our wives think.

We are riled by Mrs. Feltius' darning. Sometimes she says to our darning.

We are made who have been overlooked. And rest upon the sea.

We're crushed and bound as we are. But our faith has been made.

We're subject to the elements. And do not complain. But hasten to reach the shore.

At our lone harbor's end. Perhaps King will cherish us. And will gently bid us stay.

And if he grants us mercy. We will do the bidding. But our faith has been made.

But our faith has been made. The souls that have been forsaken Will be here again, say.

Have Proved Farmers Who are Enthusiastic about the Great Lakes—Enter into Three Profitable Routes—Will Become More Vitalized

The Great Lakes are not very new. Successive generations have known of their existence. They are taken for granted. They are used so much that their value is not appreciated. They are the lifeblood of the people who live on their shores.

From the Great Lakes to the Atlantic Ocean, the route is well established. The Great Lakes are linked with the Atlantic Ocean by the St. Lawrence River through Montreal, Quebec, and the Gulf of St. Lawrence. This route is the most direct and the most economical.

The Great Lakes are a natural source of power. The water is abundant and the power is clean. This power is used for a variety of purposes, from agriculture to industry.

The Great Lakes are a source of food. The fish and game are abundant and the water is clean. This food is used for a variety of purposes, from subsistence to commerce.

The Great Lakes are a source of recreation. The water is clean and the scenery is beautiful. This recreation is enjoyed by millions of people every year.

At present times, the bulk of grain grown on the world is shipped by the farmer to a local elevator. The grain is then shipped to the Great Lakes. From there, it is shipped to the Atlantic Ocean. This route is the most direct and the most economical.

Twenty-year agreement with the British Pacific Railway, Ltd., in these lines had taken place before the Canadian Pacific was sold to the Government. The agreement was for a period of 20 years, and was for the use of the railway. The land was situated in the district of the city of Vancouver, and was bounded by the city limits on the north and west, and by the city limits on the south and east.

Work began immediately on the clearing and blanching operations for the improvement of the road. No expense of any kind was spared to have the area properly prepared. The road was cleared of all brush and debris, and the surface was graded to the proper level. The road was then covered with a layer of gravel, and the surface was finished to the proper level. LOOKS LIKE ATTEMPT TO DESTROY CHURCH IN HAMILTON CITY

ST. MARK'S, WHERE A CONTROVERSY OVER RITUALISM PREVAILS, SCENE OF TWO SUSPICIOUS FIRES.

Hamilton, Ont., August 31.—Two fires were discovered in St. Mark's Church during the night, and it is believed a deliberate attempt was made to burn the edifice. The first was found in the kitchen of the church some time after the close of the evening service by the acting rector, Rev. J. J. Powell, and a couple of friends, who went into the kitchen to brew a cup of tea. Refuse in a basket was found in flames, which was quickly extinguished.

This morning about one o'clock, Maenan Raphael, when passing the church, saw smoke billowing from the windows and turned in an alarm. The firemen found a substantial blaze again in the church kitchen, which was quickly extinguished. They put the fire out after fighting it for half an hour. The damage is estimated at several hundred dollars.

It is believed the fire broke out through a window. A controversy over Ritualism has been going on in St. Mark's for several weeks, with Rev. Mr. Powell as the opponent of any form of services which might show an Anglo-Catholic trend. A reward is now being offered for the crosses stolen from the church recently.
